ANCORE

https://ancoreinc.com/job/sas-administrator/

SAS Administrator

Description
Duties and responsibilities

- Advise and assist stakeholders in the use of data analytics tools, techniques for SAS modules installed on SAS product platform
  • Develop policy and procedures for the data analytics platform
  • Administration duties such as creating users, groups, defining libraries, databases (DB2/Oracle/SQL Server/others), creating security scheme, implement security profiles, configure SAS tools on platform, apply hot-fixes issued by SAS as appropriate, monitor platform for operational status and resources, monitor security access to the platform, etc.
  • Serve as the End User point of contact for any SAS Analytic Tools support cases, will help to troubleshoot analytic tool issues for our users, especially those interfacing with SAS.
  • Develop solutions including complete projects, proof of concepts or code snippets as appropriate.
  • Work with users to understand and define project security, data, and operational requirements.
  • Interface and coordinate activities as pertaining to SAS between the technical team, users, and management.
  • Provide knowledge transfer to others.

Required qualifications to be successful in this role
• Master's degree with 3-6 years of experience OR Bachelor's degree with 7+ years
• Hands-on experience with SAS tools deployed on SAS product including eGuide 7.13.
• Hands-on experience with support of SAS VIYA
• Experience using SAS DI studio and ETL workflows
• Experience extracting data on mainframe using JCL and SAS Connect
• Experience with taking business requirements, translating them into technical requirements, and then to convert to Implementable SAS solution.
• Proven experience in developing functional applications and systems of medium to high technical complexity is required
• Expert use of SQL, experience with relational databases including DB2 and MS SQL Server.
• Be a proactive self-starter
• General knowledge of project management
• Excellent communication skills and be effective technical writers.
• Knowledge must include architectural design, web part development, management and troubleshooting with a focus on planning, deploying and supporting implementations at an Enterprise-scale
• Ability to manage multiple projects efficiently and able to meet deadlines

Hiring organization
Ancore Inc

Date posted
March 28, 2022